The concept for the InterContinental Beach Club is an innovative and chic atmosphere, culminating in a seamless blend of comfort and custom-designed environment for one's relaxation whilst taking in the sun and cooling off with a dip in the Mediterranean Sea. The service is what is expected within a 5 star resort, offering a hospitality known only by the Maltese. For the convenience of the guest, the beach area is complemented with two open-air restaurants set on the waters edge. An array of water-sports and scuba-diving activities are available, such as jet skiing, windsurfing, water skiing, speedboat rides, canoes, pad alocs, and boat charters.

InterContinental Malta's eight restaurants and four bars offer the leisure traveller the opportunity to experience a range of flavours from the Orient to the Mediterranean:

Paranga, the trendy Restaurant serving a truly Mediterranean dining experience with specially selected dishes enhancing the spectacular chic ambience overlooking the unique waters edge, open year round.

Lido Terrace, a casual beach bar & restaurant, ideal for the family & kids either for a light snack or dinner serving Italian Pizza's, burgers and pastas located on the unique waters edge, open throughout the Summer months till early hours of the morning.

Eastern Breeze, an Asian fusion speciality restaurant impeccably furnished to a contemporary oriental design, is the place of choice for Mediterranean and Asian delicacies. Get caught up in the atmosphere while watching the chef's preparing your mouth-watering selection from the open kitchen.

Harruba, the main restaurant of the hotel is the ideal restaurant to enjoy a 'Flavours of the World' buffet selection. With a live cooking station, dishes can be prepared to your own liking.

Soprano, set under the atrium, is an intimate á la carte dining experience, capturing the essence of Italy and the Mediterranean. Watching the chefs theatrical performance in the open kitchen, combined with the overwhelming outdoor atmosphere under the stars, makes any lunch or dinner an experience in itself.

Al Fresco, an open air restaurant surrounded by the natural beauty of the hotel's lush gardens depicting the essence of Malta in a relaxing and comfortable ambience. A wonderful array of fresh fish is displayed on the traditional 'luzzu', where your selection is exquisitely prepared to perfection.

Narcis, open in the summer months for lunch and dinner, the pool deck bar & grill serves homemade Italian pizza, pasta, sensational salads and refreshing cocktails whilst tanning by the lagoon styled pool.

Carissa 6, a cosy restaurant and accompanying bar, is the ideal casual dining venue where innovative pizzas, tasty pasta dishes and abundant salads are the choice of the day. Carissa 6 is the perfect setting where conversation is important and fighting the crowds is not an option.

Carissa Bar, the designer wine & cocktail bar, with a 'happy hour' between the hours of 1900hrs to 2100hrs, offers dramatic views over the gardens where one can unwind with family and friends whilst enjoying local or international wines from the hotels cellar.

The Lobby Bar, refreshments and light snacks can be enjoyed in the relaxing surroundings of the trendy bar and absorb the InterContinental experience. 'Happy hour' is also available between the hours of 1900hrs to 2100hrs.

Absolut Paranga Bar, Unique & trendy bar serving all types of cocktails one can think of whilst lounging by the sea side.

In the near vicinity one can find a 20 lane ten-pin bowling alley and a multi-screen cinema complex, including an Imax theatre, shopping centre and artisan village.

Managed by one of the world's leading luxury hotel companies, InterContinental Hotels Group, this outstanding property has quickly become a favoured hotel on the Maltese Islands for the leisure traveller in search of a complete resort for friends & family vacations.
